

COURSE AND EXAMINATION REGULATIONS ADDENDUM ADMISSION HBO-P STUDENT
Valid until 1 September 2021

Article 5.2 Admission

5.2.1b) Hardship clause for temporary admission of HBO-P students due to Coronavirus restrictions:

1. In exceptional cases, as a consequence of the Covid-19 outbreak, the Board of Admissions can, at the student's request, conditionally admit to the programme for six months a student who is studying for an HBO (University of Applied Sciences) first-year bachelor's diploma, providing that the student submits the completion advice from the University of Applied Sciences on or before 1 August 2021 and this is considered to be sufficient in relation to the study load of the bachelor's degree programme.
The student satisfies the requirements as mentioned under 5.2.1a.
2. Once the student passes the HBO first-year examination, admission for the remaining months is converted into definitive admission.
3. Students who do not pass the HBO first-year examination on or before 31 December 2021, will be excluded from further participation in the bachelor's degree programme until they pass the examination.
4. Section 5.2.1b applies after the entry into force of the 'Amendment to the Higher Education and Academic research Act and the Student Finance Act 2000 regarding temporary provisions for the 2021-2022 academic year in relation to Covid-19'.
